THE FACTS IN THE CASE OF THE GREAT BEEF CONTRACT.

BY MARK TWAIN.

In as few words as possible I wish to lay before the nation what share, however small, I have had in this matter—this matter which has so exercised the public mind, engendered so much ill-feeling, and so filled the newspapers of both continents with distorted statements and extravagant comments.

The origin of this distressing thing was this—and I assert here that every fact in the following resume can be amply proved by the official records of the General Government:

John Wilson Mackenzie, of Rotterdam, Chemung county, New Jersey, deceased, contracted with the General Government on or about the 10th day of October, 1861, to furnish to General Sherman the sum total of thirty barrels of beef. Very well. He started after Sherman with the beef, but when he got to Washington Sherman had gone to Manassas; so he took the beef and followed him there, but arrived too late; he followed him to Nashville, and from Nashville to Chattanooga, and from Chattanooga to Atlanta—but he never could overtake him. At Atlanta he took a fresh start and followed him clear through his march to the sea.

He arrived too late again by a few days, but hearing that Sherman was going out in the Quaker City excursion to the Holy Land, he took shipping for Beirut, calculating to head off the other vessel. When he arrived in Jerusalem with his beef, he learned that Sherman had not sailed in the Quaker City, but had gone to the Plains to fight the Indians. He returned to America and started for the Rocky Mountains. After eighteen days of arduous travel on the Plains, and when he had got within four miles of Sherman's headquarters, he was tomahawked and scalped, and the Indians got the beef. They got all of it but one barrel. Sherman's army captured that, and so, even in death, the bold navigator partly fulfilled his contract. In his will, which he had kept like a journal, he bequeathed the contract to his son, Bartholomew W. Bartholomew W. made out the following bill and then died:

The United States in acct. with John Wilson Mackenzie, of New Jersey, deceased. Dr.

To thirty barrels of beef for General Sherman, a Pair	$3 000
To traveling expenses and transportation,	14 000
Total,	$17,000
Rec'd Pay't.

He died then; but he left the contract to William J. Martin, who tried to collect it, but died before he got it through. He left it to Barker J. Allen, and he tried to collect it also. He did not survive. Barker J. Allen left it to Anson G. Rogers, who attempted to collect it, and got along as far as the Ninth Auditor's office, when Death, the great Leveller, came all unsummoned, and foreclosed on him also. He left the bill to a relative of his in Connecticut, Vengeance Hopkins by name, who lasted four weeks and two days, and made the best time on record, coming within one of reaching the Twelfth Auditor. In his will he gave the contract bill to his uncle, by the name of Obe Joyful Johnson. It was too undermining for Joyful. His last words were: "Weep not for me—I am willing to go." And so he was, poor soul. Seven people inherited the contract after that. But they all died. So that it came into my hands at last. It fell to me through a relative by the name of Hubbard—Bethlehem Hubbard, of Indiana. He had had a grudge against me for a long time; but in his last moments he sent for me, and forgave me everything, and weeping, gave me the beef contract.

This ends the history of it up to the time that I succeeded to the property. I will now endeavor to set myself straight before the nation in everything that concerns my share in the matter. I took this beef contract and the bill for mileage and transportation to the President of the United States. He said:

"Well, sir, what can I do for you?" I said:

"Sire: On or about the 10th day of October, 1861, John Wilson Mackenzie, of Rotterdam, Chemung county, N. J, deceased, contracted with the General Government to furnish the sum total of thirty barrels of beef—"

He stopped me there and dismissed me from his presence—kindly but firmly. The next day I called on the Secretary of State. He said:

"Well, sir?"

I said: "Your Royal Highness: On or about the 10th day of October, 1861, John Wilson Mackenzie, of Rotterdam, Chemung county, N. J., deceased, contracted with the General Government to furnish to General Sherman the sum total of thirty barrels of beef—"

"That will do, sir—that will do; this office has nothing to do with contracts for beef."

I was bowed out. I thought the matter all over, and finally, the following day, I visited the Secretary of the Navy, who said, "Speak quickly, sir; do not keep me awaiting."

I said; "Your Royal Highness: On or about the 10th day of October, 1861, John Wilson Mackenzie, of Rotterdam, Chemung county, New Jersey, deceased, contracted with the General Government to furnish to General Sherman the sum total of thirty barrels of beef—"

Well, it was as far as I could get. He had nothing to do with beef contracts for General Sherman either. I began to think it was a curious kind of a Government. It looked somewhat as if they wanted to get out of paying for that beef. The following day I went to the Secretary of the Interior. I said:

"Your Imperial Highness—On or about the 10th day of October—"

"That is sufficient, sir; I have heard of you before—go, take your infamous beef contract out of this establishment. The Interior Department has nothing whatever to do with subsistence for the army."

I went away. But I was exasperated now. I said I would haunt them; I would infest every department of this iniquitous Government till that contract business was settled. I would collect that bill or fail, as fell my predecessors, trying. I assailed the Postmaster General; I besieged the Agricultural Department; I way laid the Speaker of the House of Representatives. They had nothing to do with army contracts for beef. I moved upon the Commissioner of the Patent Office. I said:

"Your august excellency: On or about—"

"Perdition! Have you got here with your incendiary beef contract at last? We have nothing to do with beef contracts for the army, my dear sir."

"Oh, that is all very well; but somebody has got to pay for that beef. It has got to be paid now, too, or I'll confiscate this old Patent Office and everything in it."

"But, my dear sir—"

"It don't make any diff'rence, sir. The Patent Office is liable for that beef, I reckon, and liable or not liable, the Patent Office has got to pay for it."

Never mind the details. It ended in a fight. The Patent Office won. But I found out something to my advantage. I was told that the Treasury Department was the proper place for me to go to. I went there. I waited two hours and a half, and then I was admitted to the First Lord of the Treasury. I said:

"Most noble, grave, and reverend Signor, On or about the 10th day of October, 1861, John Wilson Mackenzie—"

"That is sufficient, sir. I have heard of you. Go to the First Auditor of the Treasury."

I did so. He sent me to the Second Auditor. The Second Auditor sent me to the Third, and the Third sent me to the First Comptroller of the Corp-Beef Division. This began to look like business. He examined his books and all his loose papers, but found no minute of the beef contract; I went to the Second Comptroller of the Corn Beef Division. He examined his books and his loose papers, but with no success. I was encouraged. During that week I got as far as the Sixth Comptroller in that division; the next week I got through the Claims Department; the third week I began and completed the Mislaid Contracts Department, and got a foothold in the Dead Reckoning, Department. I finished that in three days. There was only one place left for it now. I laid siege to the Commissioner of Odds and Ends. To his clerk rather—he was not there himself. There were sixteen beautiful young ladies in the room, writing in books, and there were seven well favored young clerks showing them how. The young women smiled up over their shoulders, and the clerks smiled back at them, and all went merry as a marriage bell. Two or three clerks that were reading the newspapers looked at me rather hard, but went on reading, and nobody said anything. However, I had been used to this kind of alacrity from fourth-assistant junior clerks all through my eventful career, from the very day I entered the first office of the Corn Beef Bureau clear till I passed out of the last one in the Dead Reckoning Division. I had got so accomplished by this time that I could stand on one foot from the moment I entered an office till a clerk spoke to me without changing more than two, or may be three times.

So I stood there till I had changed four different times. Then I said to one of the clerks who was reading:

"Illustrious Vagrant, where is the Grand Turk?"

"What do you mean, sir? Whom do you mean? If you mean the Chief of the Bureau, he is out."

"Will he visit the harem to-day?

The young man glared upon me a while, and then went on reading his papers. But I knew the ways of those clerks. I knew I was safe if he got through before another New York mail arrived. He only had two more papers left. After a while he finished them, and then he yawned, and asked me what I wanted.

"Renowned and honored Imbecile: On or about—"

"You are the beef contract man. Give me your papers."

He took them, and for a long time he ransacked his odds and ends. Finally he found the Northwest Passage, as I regarded it—he found the long-lost record of that beef contract—he found the rock upon which so many of my ancestors had split before they ever got to it. I was deeply moved. And yet I rejoiced—for I had survived. I said with emotion: "Give it to me. The Government will settle now." He waved me back and said there was something yet to be done first.

"Where is this John Wilson Mackenzie?" said he.

"Dead."

"When did he die?"

"He didn't die at all—he was killed."

"How?"

"Tomahawked."

"Who tomahawked him?"

"Why, an Indian, of course. You didn't suppose it was a superintendent of a Sunday-school, did you?"

"No. An Indian, was it?"

"The same."

"Name of the Indian?"

"His name! I don't know his name."

"Must have his name. Who saw the tomahawking done?"

"I don't know."

"You were not present yourself, then?"

"Which you can see by my hair. I was absent."

"Then how do you know that Mackenzie is dead?"

"Because he certainly died at that time, and I have every reason to believe that he has been dead ever since. I know he has, in fact."

"We must have proofs. Have you got the Indian?"

"Of course not."

"Well, you must get him. Have you got the tomahawk?"

"I never thought of such a thing."

"You must get the tomahawk. You must produce the Indian and the tomahawk. If Mackenzie's death can be proven by these, you can then go before the commission appointed to audit claims with some show of getting your bill under such headway that your children may possibly live to receive the money and enjoy it. But that man's death must be proven. However, I may as well tell you that the Government will never pay that transportation and those travelling expenses of the lamented Mackenzie. It may possibly pay for the barrel of beef that Sherman's soldiers captured if you can get a relief bill through Congress making an appropriation for that purpose; but it will not pay for the twenty-nine barrels the Indians ate."

"Then there is only a hundread dollars due me, and that isn't certain! After all Mackenzie's travels in Europe, Asia, and America with that beef, after all his trials and tribulations and transportation; after the slaughter of all those innocents that tried to collect that bill! Young man, why didn't the First Comptroller of the Corn Beef Division tell me this?"

"He didn't know anything about the genuineness of your claim."

"Why didn't the Second tell me? Why didn't the Third? Why didn't all these divisions and departments tell me?"

None of them know. We do things by routine here. You have followed the routine and found out what you wanted to know. It is the best way. It is the only way. It is very regular, and very slow, but it is very certain."

"Yes, certain death. It has been to the most of our tribe. I begin to feel that I too, am called. Young man, you love the bright creature yonder with the gentle blue eyes and the steel pens behind her ears—I see it in your soft glances; you wish to marry her—but you are poor. Here, hold out your hand—here is the beef contract; go, take her and be happy! Heaven bless you, my children!"

This is all that I know about the great beef contract that has created so much talk in the community. The clerk to whom I bequeathed it died. I know nothing further about the contract or any one connected with it. I only know that if a man lives long enough he can trace a thing through the Circumlocution Office of Washington, and find out, after much labor, and trouble, and delay, that which he could have found out on the first day, if the business of the Circumlocution Office were as ingeniously systematized as it would be if it were a great private mercantile institution.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

THE EXTENSIVE USE OF THESE WATCHES for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 450 000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skilful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and fauultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mention d improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch should bear either of the following trade marks.

American Watch Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
Ams. Watch Co.	Waltham, Mass.
American Watch Co., Crescent St.,	Waltham, Mass.
Appleton, Tracy & Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett,	Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery,	Waltham, Mass.
Home Watch Co.,	Boston, Mass.

For sale at retail by all respectable dealers.

A descriptive circular giving much useful information sent to any address on application.

No watches retailed by the Company.

Address,

ROBBINS & APPLETON,

Gen'l Agents.

182 Broadway, New York.

Ask to see the new FULL-PLATE WATCH bearing the trade mark "AMERICAN WATCH Co., Crescent st., Waltham, Mass." It is by far the best Full-plate Watch made in the United States, and surpasses anything heretofore made in this country for Railway Engineers, Conductors, &c.

FUNERAL RIGHTS.

It was a custom among the ancient Romans to mingle the voice of satire and ridicule with the voice of praise, at the funerals of the dead as well as at triumphs of the living. Jibbon tells us that the corpse of the Emperor Julian was transported from Nesbis to Tarsus in a slow march of fifteen days. In some cities it was received with mournful lamentations, in others with clamorous insults.

The Pagans canonized Julian, while "the Christians pursued," says the historian, "the apostate Emperor's soul to hell, and his body to the grave."

Julian was a bad man, as were Stephens and Colgrove. It was not proper in the Pagans to worship him, it was certainly barbarous in the Christians to pursue the poor man's soul to hell. We think the Governor's grief over Colgrove and Stephens is excessive, or hypocritical—probably the latter, and we think any rejoicing over their death better becomes a Pagan than a Christian. Every man who values the peace and good order of society, must lament the manner in which these bad men were brought to their graves. They doubtless had kindred to whom they were dear, and we would not distress them in their silent grief.

The Governor's grief is public, not private. It is noisy, not silent. It is hypocritical, not sincere.

Stephens and Colgrove were of kin to the Governor only in political villainy. They were united the one to the other by horrid jacobinical oaths. Holden telegraphs the death of Stephens to Abbott, that Abbott may also grieve. He adds a falsehood, that Carey, the "archives of gravity," had been driven from the county.

The Governor thinks to make the election turn on the assassination of Stephens. He thinks his death will save him and his administration from the ignominy which awaits it by the verdict of the people in August next. The Governor may dam up his grief, for Colgrove and Stephens can't save him and his party from the political oblivion to which they are hastening.

"VIOLENT MEN."

Such is the heading of an article in the Standard of yesterday. The article has the ring of the Governor's metal, and bears the marks of his pen. The old man continues his visits to the Standard office where many copies of General Clingman's address in the Radical and Ring interest, remains to be distributed.

The Governor says, "violent men precipitated the State into the late war." Who, pray were they but the Governor, Clingman, Cantwell, Rodman, Colonel Hargrove, and men of like loyalty and antecedents?

This assertion of the Governor and the Standard, is contradicted by no less authority than the Governor and the Standard, themselves. The day after the Governor signed the ordinance of secession, he said in the Standard, "that North Carolina had acted deliberately and acted well." She would "make secession good with her last man and her last dollar."

Well does Jack Falstaff exclaim, "Lord, Lord how this world is given to lying!"

When did the Governor tell the truth, then or now? He said, in 1861, she acted "deliberately." Now, he says, she acted "precipitately." Which shall it be? How shall we choose between the two?

In the last issue of the Hillsboro' Recorder, we find a long account of the recent murder of J. W. Stephens, at Yanceyville. We make the following extract embodying particulars not heretofore given:

"Three negroes: Daniel Johnston, Stephen Lawson, and the third one we don't remember—it is said offered a negro who used to belong to a Mr. Bigelow fifty dollars to swear that he saw three white gentlemen in Yanceyville take Stephens into that room.

A young man from Yanceyville who was on his way to Richmond was understood by the conductor to say, that the room in which Stephens was found dead was thumb bolted inside and the windows had been fastened down.

It is a little singular that the same brutal manner in which the negroes murdered poor Blalock in Hillsboro, was adopted in the killing of Stephens, viz: found dead with his throat cut and a piece of rope tied tight around his neck. It behooves the good people of Caswell in tracing out the author or authors of this horrible deed to consider well all these points. That there may have been strangers from Orange or Alamance or other counties in town at the time is no more a point to be considered than that there might be still lurking in that county strange negroes, and some who have escaped from jail, and who have been tried once for a murder just as foul and very much similar to that of Senator Stephens."

A perfect "reign of terror" is said to exist in Robeson county, and for which all agree that the blood-thirsty Union League is responsible.

A good many Radical office-holders are known to be the prime movers in all the outrages that are daily and nightly perpetrated.

Hon. Plato Durham has received the Conservative nomination for Congress in the 7th district.

WORDS OF TRUTH AND WISDOM, SADLY APPLICABLE TO THE PRESENT JUDICIAL STATUS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

We quote the following brief extracts from a speech of the great and good Chief Justice Marshall, in the Virginia Convention of 1829 '30, on the subject of Judicial Independence:

"I have grown old in the opinion that there is nothing more dear to Virginia, or ought to be dearer to her statesmen, and that the best interests of our country are secured by it. Advert, sir, to the duties of a Judge. He has to pass between the government and the man whom that government is prosecuting, between the most powerful individual in the community and the poorest and most unpopular. It is of the last importance, that in the exercise of these duties, he should observe the utmost fairness. Need I press the necessity of this? Does not every man feel that his own personal security and the security of his property depends on that fairness?—The Judicial department comes home in its effects to every man's fireside, it passes on his property, his reputation, his life, his all. Is it not, to the last degree important, that he should be rendered perfectly and completely independent, with nothing to influence or control him but God and his conscience? * * * I have always thought, from my earliest youth till now, that the greatest scourge an angry Heaven ever inflicted upon an ungrateful and a sinning people, was an ignorant, a corrupt, or a dependent Judiciary; will you draw down this curse upon Virginia?"

Radicalism has drawn down the curse upon North Carolina; our judiciary are dependent upon their late slaves; their incompetency and ignorance is as apparent as their dependence.

The corruption of one, at least, is established, while others are suspected.

Shades of Marshall and Gaston! what think you of Tourgee, Cloud, Jones, Cannon and Watts!

For the Sentinel.

OXFORD, N. C. May 30th.

Mr. Editor:—

DEAR SIR:—I had the pleasure a few evenings since of attending, with a select and highly intelligent audience, the closing exercises of the Oxford Female Academy now under the control of Miss M. E. Mitchell assisted by Mrs. E. A. Grant.

Youth, beauty, music, and flowers conspired to produce a scene charming and refreshing to the eye and heart, of every age, that turned aside from life's busy cares to yield awhile to its sweet and pure influences. The musical performances of the young ladies, both vocal and instrumental, reflected the highest credit upon themselves and their skilful and faithful instructress, Mrs. Morrow, who has charge of this department. Not one failed in her piece, though an occasional quiver of the gentle voice in the solos might be observed. Every one did admirably, and united in a complete success. The dress, carriage, and general deportment of the pupils was tasteful, refined, and exceedingly becoming. At the close, the Reports were read out by the President of the board of Trustees, in which the scholarship and deportment of every pupil was faithfully and impartially rendered. This excellent school commends itself to the public as one suited to the times in every respect; its characteristic is Thoroughness, and the standard of scholarship very high. The love of ostentation and empty parade is not cultivated or encouraged here, but every incentive given to the acquirement of solid, useful, and enduring knowledge, such as will fit our daughters to appreciate the responsibilities of life, and adorn, as woman should, any sphere in which they may be placed. The prospects of the Academy are highly encouraging, and in such hands, it must soon rank among the most flourishing, as it already does, with the very best institutions of the country.

SIMPLE JUSTICE.

RADICAL MEETING IN STANLY.

According to previous notice the Radical nominating convention was held at Albemarle to-day.

About 1 o'clock proclamation was made, and an invitation given for every body to assemble in the Court House, whereupon, forty-three Conservatives, nine colored and twenty-one white Radicals went in. Adam Dry was called to the Chair, and William Green made Secretary. The Chairman then dryly explained the object of the meeting, which was to this effect: that the colored Radicals were entitled to twelve delegates in the meeting, but must not expect to be nominated for any office, as that would not do in Stanly.

Levi then commenced the old trick, by introducing a resolution, nominating Richmond Pickler who has been an independent candidate for the Senate, which resolution according to previous arrangement was adopted. Then the said Levi, Colonel of the militia and census taker for the county, was nominated for the House of Representatives, which nomination was very disagreeable to Levi, he neither expecting or desiring anything of the kind, he however had laid up plenty of thanks which he delivered to the Convention for the great honor thus conferred.

They then tried for county officers, but finding some that would not accept, they got only a piece of a ticket, and not having any one in the party who could give the bond or do the business of the office, they made no nominations, for Sheriff, Treasurer, or Surveyor.

They Resolved that four dollars per day was enough for members of the Legislature, and requested that county Commissioners serve for two dollars per day.

As they could not praise, and were afraid to abuse their party leaders and league masters, they said nothing about Rings &c.

There were some fifty colored voters in town, but only nine went in; the colored vote in this county is small, and in the next election we expect the larger portion of it to fall on the Conservative side; these colored men have not as yet got the mule and forty acres of land, and pay but little respect to white Radicals, because they say but little is due.

SPECTATOR.

Stanly County, May 28th, 1870.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—There is scarcely any office, in the gift of the people, more important than that of County Commissioners, the Legislature having clothed them with extended powers.

In order that we may have good men to fill these important places, allow us to present the following names:

GEO. W. NORWOOD,
P. B. HOLLAND,
J. J. OVERBY,
A. T. MIAL,
WILLIAM HILEY.

MANY VOTERS.

A man lately went into a provision store to purchase a corned tongue. The dealer handed him one, remarking that it was very nice, and furthermore, it never told a lie. "It is very evident, then," replied the purchaser, "that it was never engaged in the provision business."

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, May 31, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.:—MY DEAR SIR: Will you be kind enough through the SENTINEL, to say to a few partial friends, that I have no political aspirations. That I have been a confirmed invalid for nearly three years, and that I have not been able to get out of my house. For fourteen days I have received divers letters and messages in reference to the convention to come off at Franklinton; many of them I have not been able to reply to.

I am now gradually improving; have been able to ride out for two days and am making my arrangements to spend a few months at the "Springs" in Western Virginia, and shall, therefore, necessarily be absent during the canvass, and until after the election. I am no indifferent spectator, however, as to the real condition of our country. I hope yet to be able to attend the convention before leaving, for my heart is in the cause you so ably defend.

Very truly yours,
J. P. H. RUSS.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, May 28, 1870.

MR. EDITOR: Allow me, through your columns to announce the success of one of North Carolina's proudest sons. It is well known, that owing to the misrule of a malignant administration, our University which once towered among literary institutions of a similar nature, is now degraded into obscurity. Owing to this fact, the young men of North Carolina, are compelled to look elsewhere for that education which their own State denies. The University of Virginia held out the greater inducements, and hence, many flocked around her standard determined if possible, to carry away with them her highest honor. Many were the disputants, but one only was successful—that one was Mr Robt. T. Thorp, of North Carolina. Efforts had been made by his adversaries to defeat him, but throwing his banner to the breeze, bearing the solitary inscription "merit," success was certain.

Well may he rejoice, for in him the Old North State has reaped her first and only great victory at the University of Virginia.

RICE LANDS—A SUCCESSFUL INNOVATION. There has been much speculation since the close of the war in regard to the ultimate purpose to which the valuable rice lands in this section will be applied in order to renderer them profitable to the owners. Rice culture has been fully tried under the new regime, and has proved a failure.

Dr. J. E. Winants, the purchaser, two or three years ago, of the rice plantation formerly owned by Mr. S. P. Ivey, has been and is still engaged in a series of experiments with various cereals, and has, we believe, attained an encouraging degree of success. He has already made a profitable crop of hay, and is now trying what can be done with corn, cotton, &c. To obviate the difficulty arising from want of drainage, a wind mill, with pumps attached, has been recently put into successful operation, and even with imperfect dams, insufficient ditches, &c., it keeps 50 acres of land dry enough to admit of ploughing.

Regulating the extent of surface exposed to the wind, according as the wind may be, high or otherwise, and always keeping faced to the wind, it requires no care, except oiling, and performs its work steadily at night as well as in the day. When at full speed it will pump from six to seven thousand gallons per hour.

If Dr. Winants succeeds in raising cotton on these (since the war) useless lands, they will no doubt soon be put into a state of cultivation. The entire cost of one of these wind mills and pumps is about $500. We should think truck gardening would pay on rice lands. The soil requires no fertilizers and the money saved in that direction would easily purchase the windmill.—Wil. Journal.

ANOTHER NEGRO ACQUITTED.—Next in order after the acquittal of Sykes Funderburg, accused of the murder of a white man for his money, comes the acquittal of Emily Grier, another colored person, charged with an offense only less heinous than that of murder.

A year ago the house of the Rev. Mr. Douglass of the Presbyterian Church of this county was burned to the ground by an incendiary. All the facts and circumstances in the case pointed to Emily Grier as the perpetrator of the deed and she was arrested and confined in jail until Monday, when she had her trial and was acquitted by a jury after a fair and full investigation. Mr. Douglass who was on the ground and is acquainted with every circumstance of the case and who is a christian gentleman, had no doubt of the guilt of the accused, but she was acquitted, notwithstanding he assisted in the prosecution, by his advice and suggestions, to secure her conviction.

In Mecklenburg county there has never been a colored juror drawn, and the Sheriff as well as all the other county officers are Conservatives.

We attach an importance to these acquittals which we otherwise would not do, if it had not been charged upon this county that an accusation against a negro was equivalent to a conviction. A distinguished member of the bar who attends the courts at this place has stated that a negro could not get justice done him in our court, and we point him to these recent cases to show that if there has been error on the part of our juries their error was on the side of mercy.—Char. Observer.

The Greek philosophers held that a thick neck indicates a strong character; a well sized neck, not too thick, shows highmindedness; a long, slender neck, cowardice; a very short one, cunning. The animal types these follow are respectively the lion, the stag, and the wolf. Thin lips, loose at the ends, and the upper one overlapping, also show highmindedness; and this too belongs to the lion type, and to high spirited dogs. Thick lips, the upper projecting, show folly, and belong to the type of the ass and the monkey. People with projecting upper lips and prominent gums are apt to be abusive. A nose with thick extremities shows indolence—the bovine type. An aquiline nose, well cleared from the forehead, shows highmindedness. The same indication is offered by a round nose, flattened at the end. A nose turning up rapidly from the forehead shows impudence. Nostrils wide open, show a passionate character. Fleshy faces show indolence and cowardice; lean faces, diligence; little faces, small mindedness; large faces, slowness and stupidity; the middle size is the best. If there are baggy formations about the eyes, the subject is fond of drink. Little eyes are a sign of a little mind; great or prominent eyes, of stupidity; oppressive eyes, of a mischievous disposition. As to their color, very black eyes show cowardice, as also gray and the pale colored eyes; those of the blonde type, and bright gleaming eyes, indicate courage; glittering eyes, a sensual character. The forehead, if little, shows inaptitude to learning; if it is very large, stupidity; if round, insensibility; if square and symmetrical, self will. A large head shows insensibility; a little head, lively perception; a peaked head, impudence. Little ears belong to the monkey type, and great ears to the donkey. One may observe that the best kind of dogs have moderate ears.

DUNN'S PATENT COTTON TIE.

WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the Above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina.

The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best tie yet introduced. It combines the advantages of great strength, great simplicity and ease in manipulation, besides the difficulty of taking up the slack of the band in the operation of baling, is entirely obviated.

We shall have our supply direct from the manufacturer in England, for delivery in July or August, and at lowest market rates.

Liberal terms to the trade.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. S. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, some decidedly lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies bring non-forfeiture, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into ANNUITY BONDS, after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1870.

☞ THEO. S. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The District Conservative Convention will be held in Franklinton, June 7th and 8th, to nominate candidates for Congress, and to make arrangements for the Congressional campaign.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Wake County Convention will meet in Raleigh on Saturday, June 4th, to appoint delegates to the Franklinton District Convention.

SPEAKING AT HAYWOOD.—The Editor of the SENTINEL will, by invitation, address the people of Chatham, at Haywood, on the Chatham Railroad, on Friday, June 10th.

We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the merchants and business men of this city, at the Yarborough House, this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by a gentleman, upon a matter which affects the commercial interest of the whole State.

CITY MARKET.—Spring chickens 30 to 35 cts; Butter 27½ to 30 cts per pound; Eggs 20 cts per dozen; Cabbage 12½ to 15 cts per head; Irish potatoes 75 cts per peck; Onions 25 cts per dozen; Strawberries 10 cts per quart; Green Peas 40 cts per peck.

We are authorized to announce that the pic-nic of the Baptist Sunday School, is postponed until the next fair day.

We learn that the young ladies of Mrs. Lacy's school enjoyed, yesterday, a most delightful pic nic. Notwithstanding the unfavorable state of the weather, the affair, we understand, was highly enjoyed by all the participants.

We are requested to announce that books of subscription for stock in the Masonic Temple Association, are open at the Raleigh National Bank and State National Bank.

Three convicts arrived last night from Wilson, and were safely lodged in the Union League hotel, (Penitentiary) this morning, where they will probably sojourn for some time. All three, we believe, were convicted of horse stealing.

There is a curiosity at High Point in the shape of a rooster with horns growing on each side of the head.

On Friday, a good many mill dams and bridges were washed away by the freshet in Orange county.

Charlotte is occasionally delighted by concerts at the Female Institute.

W. P. Welch, Esq., has been nominated by the Conservatives of Haywood county, for re election to the House of Representatives.

The Memorial Concert, given by the ladies of Wilson recently, is pronounced a decided success.

Geo. F. Dail, Esq., is the Conservative candidate for the House of Representatives in Greene county.

G. M. Whiteside has been nominated by the Conservatives of the 38th Senatorial District for re election to the Senate.

Gen. A. J. Dargan is the Conservative candidate for the Senate in the District composed of the counties of Anson and Union, and Major W. E. Smith is the nominee for the House of Representatives in Anson.

Judging from the numerous accounts of burglaries, thefts, &c., which we see chronicled in our Wilmington exchanges every day, we are led to believe that that city is regularly besieged by rogues.

Weldon is shortly to have a handsome Episcopal Church.

PROGRESS THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—It seems that Excelsior, is now the watchword of our popular Insurance Agt., P. F. Pescud Esq., who makes his bow to our readers in this afternoon's paper.

Mr. P. says that he has taken the Excelsior, in order to overcome the increasing competition from old and new Companies. The new feature presented by the Excelsior, in attaching a cost valuation to all her policies, with which policy-holders may purchase annuity bonds and secure an income for life or a series of years, is indeed new, and must be popular.

We wish Mr. P. abundant success and refer the reader to his advertisement.

Three Requisities of Health.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, there would not be doctors enough to attend them, nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz: a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eighths of the many thousands who suffer from indisposition, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they 'can't eat,' that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor is it necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's, Bitters, will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise. This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or incapacity to sleep) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a saporific, or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties, and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowles are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equanized. It is believed that there is no other remorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficiarily and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time; and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

NEW STEAMSHIP LINE.—Col. Peter Mallett, so well known to the people of this State, is now in this city, canvassing for a new line of Steamers to run between New York and the different ports of Virginia.

We heartily wish the enterprise success, and hope that the necessary arrangements will be speedily completed.

Freights from New York to Virginia and North Carolina are exorbitant, and higher than those from New York to any other point. This state of things arises from the fact, that there are no competing lines between our ports and that of New York.

Should this arrangement be carried into effect, the merchants of this city and of Western North Carolina, will get their groceries thirty or forty per cent lower than the present rates.

We hope our business men will consider this matter and give it their support and encouragement.

We return our thanks for an invitation to be present at the Commencement exercises of the Pittsboro Scientific Academy, on Wednesday June 8th.

We learn from the programme that Rev. L. Branson, of this city, will preach the Annual Sermon on Wednesday, and that Col. W. L. Saunders of Chapel Hill will deliver the Annual Address on the following Thursday.

The Principal of this Institution, Col. C. B. Denson, is a gentleman of rare scholarly attainments, and has already obtained for his school a high reputation, and we hope he will continue to meet with that patronage and success which he so eminently deserves.

BLOODY AFFRAY.—Last night about 8 o'clock, in a house near the City Cemetery, a bloody affray occurred between two colored men, Ransom Harrison and his nephew, Ransom Poacher, which terminated by Poacher shooting his uncle twice, the balls each time taking effect in the left side.—Harrison is still alive, but we understand, that his physician pronounces his wounds mortal. We could not learn the exact origin of the difficulty, but it seems that a dispute about house rent had something to do with the quarrel.

Poacher is still at large, though an active and vigorous search is being made for him, and we hope that we will have the pleasure of noticing his arrest in our next issue.

The absence of our Local, who is attending the Commencement exercises of the Warrenton Female College, will account for the non-appearance of an article upon the dismal and uncomfortable weather of the past two days.

We can assure our readers, if they will kindly indulge us a few days, that when he returns all past deficiencies will be amply atoned for, that is, if he should have better luck than he did last time and get back without accident.

W. A. Allen, Esq., the Conservative candidate for the Senate in the 12th District, is doing good service and displaying an activity and energy worthy of imitation.—He addresses the people of Richlands, Onslow county, on Saturday next, and on the following Monday he speaks at Jacksonville.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA.
Open May 15th, 1870.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dysentery. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "ROCKBRIDGE ALUM." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.

Wednesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The President goes to Annapolis to-morrow.

Walcott Hamlin of Maine, has been appointed Supervisor of Revenue vice Harrison resigned, who had charge in New Jersey.

The Senate resumed Executive session on the Sandwich Island treaty at half past one o'clock.

Henry A. Badham is confirmed as Consul General to Tampico; Walter R. Wentworth as collector of Revenue at Tappahannock, Va.

HOUSE.—The tax bill was resumed. An amendment, allowing a discount of ten per cent. on stamps for amounts in excess of $300, was adopted.

In the course of a discussion in regard to penalties for washing defaced stamps Schenck stated that it was the intention of the Committee on Ways and Means to wipe out the whole system of spies and informers, and to allow no more mottoes.

A Treasury estimate presented during the discussion, shows the following for the next year; from customs $185,000,000; from Internal taxes $17,000,000; from lands 3,000,000; from Miscellaneous sources $28,000,000 making a total of $303,000,000. The estimated expenditures were $291,000,000, which would leave a surplus of $102,000,000. The amendment fixing the stamps on checks for any sum of two cents was adopted. The Income tax was finally reached and the discussion indicated an increased exemption to $2,000, and the continuance of the present rate.

SENATE.—Conkling introduced a joint resolution authorizing the use of a patent arrangement for making up mail matter.

Petitions were presented for the organization of an International Society; for promoting immigration; and protesting against the income tax.

The bill re-districting the Judicial Circuits was resumed. The transfer of Virginia from the 3d to the 5th, and Tennessee from the 5th to the 4th circuits, was debated and lost by a vote of 28 to 33.

Drake offered an amendment to correct what he held to be an illegal and improper designation in the act of 1866, by virtue of which the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, wrongfully assumed in the impeachment trial, the title of Chief Justice of the United States, when there was no such office; agreed to. The bill then passed.

The bill as it passed the Senate constitutes the various circuits as follows:

1st. Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

2nd, New York.

3rd New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia.

4th. Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas.

5th. North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Tennessee.

6th. Ohio Michigan, Kentucky and West Virginia.

7th. Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin

8th. Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri.

9th. California, Oregon and Nevada.

The Supreme Court Justices, except the Chief Justice, are required to reside in their respective Circuits, and the Chief Justice is to be known as the "Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States."

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The Presbyterian General Assembly heard the delegates appointed to visit the Assembly at Louisville. The delegates presented a communication from the Southern Assembly replying to the overtures made to them. It states that the Southern Church does not approve of an union with the Northern Church, because it would be a total surrender of all fundamental doctrines, &c.

The delegates bringing the communication also submitted their report, showing what action had been taken at Louisville.

Several Representatives made speeches, showing in what spirit the Southern Assembly had received the overtures. It was thought that the opinion of that Assembly, was not the opinion of the Southern Church.

The report was received and the Committee discharged.

VERMONT.

ST ALBANS, June 1.—Federal soldiers have departed. General Donnelly is slowly recovering from his wounds; he is still under arrest.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, June 1.—The Democratic State Convention assembled to day, and organized by making N. J. Calian, chairman pro tem.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, June 1.—The Legislature organized by electing S. M. Wheeler, Speaker of the House, and N. Gordon, President of the Senate.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, June 1.—"Hustler" was the third horse in the Derby races. Fifteen horses ran. Lord Falmouth's horse "Kingcraft" won the Derby stake at Epsom.

Cyrus Redding, an author, is dead, age 85.

PARIS, June 1.—It is stated that the Emperor goes to Munich in July.

All the alleged regicides will be discharged except 14.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—One hundred brewers of New York petition not to be classed as manufacturers of spiritus liquors, and 200 tobacco manufacturers petition for an uniform tax of 16 cents.

Clark of Texas, introduced a bill donating certain federal property in Galveston to that city.

A resolution paying Hunt $2,000; Sypher $4,000; McCrary $3,000; Morey $3,000, Ryan $3,000, all contestants from Louisiana, passed by a vote of 77 to 69.

The tax bill was resumed; no definited action.

SENATE.—Flanagan introduced a resolution in favor of the construction of an International Railroad.

Harris introduced a resolution directing the Committee on Commerce to take into consideration the reconstruction of levees destroyed during the war. He estimates the expense at $36,000,000. The Committee to report next session. The resolution is still under discussion.

PAIN KILLER
PERRY DAVIS'S
PROVIDENCE R. I.
1840 1870

The Great Family Medicine of the Age.

THIRTY YEARS

Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in curing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a PAIN KILLER its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.

THIRTY YEAR is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the PAIN KILLER is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a SURE and EFFECTIVE remedy. Sold by all Druggists.

PRICES 25 cts, 50 cts, AND $1.00 PER BOTTLE.

Directions accompany each bottle.

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash secured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "ANNUAL" AFTER THEY CEASE REMAIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to the use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 20 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. THE AMERICAN COMBINATION

Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in absence of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITSOWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD !!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

It costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in recommending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

GLOBE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

CITY OF NEW YORK.

"STRONG, LIBERAL, SAFE, AND OF ESTABLISHED REPUTATION. THE GLOBE OFFERS EVERY INDUCEMENT TO PERSONS DESIROUS OF MAKING PROVISION FOR THOSE WHOM THEY MAY LEAVE BEHIND."

PLINY FREEMAN,	President.
LORING ANDREWS,	Vice President.
J. A. RADENBURGH,	2d Vice President
H. C. FREEMAN,	Secretary.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence.

H. H. GOODLOE,	General Agent for N. C.
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD,	Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

OFFICE, ON FAYETTEVILLE STREET,
OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE:

The rooms lately occupied by Geo. M. Whiting, Esq; where the Agent will be pleased to give any desired particulars.

LIFE INSURANCE.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL IS THE STRONGEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, IN THE WORLD;

ASSETS OVER $30,000,000.

RATIO OF EXPENSES TO TOTAL RECEIPTS, IN 1870, 6.89 per cent.

Dividend payable in 1870, $2,300,000

The ratio of Assets to Liabilities, as measured by the New York Legal Standard, is $50.56 for $100; and it is safe to say that no other Life Insurance upon strictly equitable terms and the cheapest in the end, can show as favorable a ratio.

WANTED—AGENTS—$75 to $200 per month, everywhere, male and female to introduce the GENUINE IMPROVED COMMON SENSE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. This Machine will stitch, hem, fell, tuck, quilt, cord, bind, braid and embroider in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully warranted for five years. We will pay $1000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch." Every second stitch can be cut, and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay Agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address SECOMB & CO., PITTSBURGH, PA.; BOSTON, MASS., or ST. LOUIS, MO.

CAUTION.—Beware of all Agents selling Machines under the same name as ours, unless they can show a certificate of agency signed by us. We shall not hold ourselves responsible for worthless Machines sold by other parties, and shall prosecute all parties either selling or using Machines under this name to the full extent of the law, unless such Machines were obtained from us or our Agents. Do not be imposed upon by parties who copy our advertisement and circulars and offer worthless Machines at a less price.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
